

Ask your health care provider about this free video

A Shared Decision-Making® Program produced by Health Dialog. Researched and evaluated by the Foundation for Informed Medical Decision Making.

Treatment Choices for Abnormal Uterine Bleeding

This program, for women with abnormal uterine bleeding NOT caused by cancer or fibroids, provides information on possible treatment options including: watchful waiting, medical therapy, and surgery including hysterectomy so that, together with your health care provider, you can choose the best option for you.