

Ask your health care provider about this free video

A Shared Decision-Making® Program produced by Health Dialog. Researched and evaluated by the Foundation for Informed Medical Decision Making.

Breast Reconstruction

Is it right for you?

There are many decisions to be made regarding breast reconstruction. Do you want a breast reconstruction after mastectomy? If so, when will you have it done? And what type of breast reconstruction do you prefer? This program offers an overview of the options to help you make an informed choice that is best for you.