

Ask your health care provider about this free video

A Shared Decision-Making® Program produced by Health Dialog. Researched and evaluated by the Foundation for Informed Medical Decision Making.

Treatment Choices for Coronary Artery Disease

Making decisions about how to treat coronary artery disease can be difficult. This program provides information on medical therapy, angioplasty and stents, and bypass surgery, so that together with your health care provider, you can decide on the best treatment for you.