

Ask your health care provider about this free video

A Shared Decision-Making® Program produced by Health Dialog. Researched and evaluated by the Foundation for Informed Medical Decision Making.

Living with Coronary Heart Disease

If you have been diagnosed with coronary heart disease, making heart-healthy choices can help you feel better, live longer or both. This program provides information on medications, self-care options, and lifestyle choices to help you live better with heart disease.