

Ask your health care provider about this free video

A Shared Decision-Making® Program produced by Health Dialog. Researched and evaluated by the Foundation for Informed Medical Decision Making.

Living with Metastatic Breast Cancer

Making the journey your own

Women living with metastatic breast cancer talk about what has helped them to: maintain a positive outlook; get the best care from the medical team; make decisions about treatments; and live a full life when the future is uncertain