

Ask your health care provider about this free video

A Shared Decision-Making® Program produced by Health Dialog. Researched and evaluated by the Foundation for Informed Medical Decision Making.

Is a PSA Test right for you?

PSA is a blood test that screens for prostate cancer in men 50 years and older. If the test is positive, a biopsy can tell you whether you have prostate cancer. This program covers the pros and cons of screening and the available options if your PSA test is positive.