

Ask your health care provider about this free video

A Shared Decision-Making® Program produced by Health Dialog. Researched and evaluated by the Foundation for Informed Medical Decision Making.

Treatment Choices for Prostate Cancer

There are several options for treatment of early stage prostate cancer, including: surgery, radiation, active surveillance, and watchful waiting. This program provides information on your options, so together with your health care provider, you can decide what is right for you.