

The ARTHRO Mentor is the most validated simulator in the market. Offering complex clinical procedures and exclusive content. The simulator's dynamic haptics provides tissue sensation even during suturing or procedure structural changes. Comprehensive objective reports and proficiency level setting tools allows for efficient tracking of the training progress. Complete curriculum from basic skills to diagnostic and therapeutic procedures have ready-to-use courses for independent training.

