

The Advanced Female Catheterization Trainer allows the trainee to learn urethral and suprapubic catheterization , as well as how to demonstrate self-catheterization to patients (using the optional Self Catheterization Stand). It has accurate female urethral anatomy that is realistically soft and compliant. The feel of the catheter passing along the urethra into the bladder corresponds closely to real life.

